THE TWENTY DOLLAR

Opened up yesterday are going fast-very fast. This is a fast age, and we pariake. No slow-sellers with us. Satin-lined Overcoats in quantities to select from for twenty dollars; from that up to fifty. Who will buy while it is yet time? Some that are not satin-lined-equally good values—recommend themselves to economical buyers, at all prices and in all qualifies, to say nothing of quantities. Twenty dollars is our objective point for some choice things in Men's Overcoats, which we have reached, not without considerable labor, and we give you the benefit of it. All do not want twenty dollar Overcoats; so we are ready to meet you at any point.

The fits are superb, the goods just what you want, the work tailor-like, and the trimmings exquisite. Are you fond of adjectives, "We have given you almost as many as our vocabulary comprises, and yet we have failed to do justice to our
